

5th TRANSDIMENSIONAL LEVEL

LOCATION

Connected into the body through the 5th chakra or throat center

ANCHOR POINT FOR THE PLANET

There are few anchor points per se for this dimension in the ways that I have heretofore addressed. Rather, the human mental body is the primary anchor point for this dimension. This dimension both corresponds to the mental body of the human energy field and in its deeper octaves to the soul body. There are numerous portals on the earth to gain access to the 5th dimension and some of these can be traced to the standing stones that are often seen in the British Isles. I have also found some portals located in Bandelier State Park outside of Santa Fe, New Mexico and clients have reported other gateways in canyons outside of Las Cruces, New Mexico. I believe that many Native American Indian sacred sites also have access to the 5th dimension through the land, rocks, and trees.

PERSONAL ISSUES ASSOCIATED WITH THIS CHAKRA

- Piercing through to the truth: finding your own truth; being able to ascertain the truth in other's; being able to detect the presence of falsehood and deception
- Being authentic and congruent with yourself and in your communications and behaviors
- Encourages the development of what I call transparency: transparency is the ability to vibrate the mental body to its original, pure vibration. If you were to do that, your mental clarity would be pristine, without distractions or fear inducing thinking. Transparency optimizes creative, inspirational communication which evolves the soul. Excellent spiritual teachers who emit transparency are often perceived as egoless teachers, a very rare phenomenon. The ability to discourse about spiritual concepts with clarity, precision, inspirational awareness and egoless distraction aptly describe transparency.
- This chakra, as it carries the vibration of the soul body, presents the challenge of knowing and fulfilling your soul purpose for this life.
- Challenges you to develop well honed intention, or the intentioned focusing of your will to some higher ideal goal, idea or vision.
- Mind manipulation, thought insertion, or any technique designed to malign or destroy the mind would represent a 5th dimensional issue.
- Interactions designed to confuse the soul, lead it astray or prompt the soul to become hopeless would represent a shadow aspect of the 5th chakra.
- Difficulty accepting the dark side of the self (aspects such as your own hatred, greed, lust, jealousy, rage, terror, shame). Because of the intensity of the archetypal issues corresponding to this level, people working at this level of development attract into their lives high drama, both positive and negative. Through the encounter and subsequent mastery of the drama, karma is released and fears are processed. Another shadow side of this level then, is the addiction to drama and all of the highs and lows that it brings.

ABOUT THIS DIMENSION.

- Contains the soul and karmic (AKASHIC) records, i.e., the history of your incarnations on earth, and in other planes of matter; matter tends to exist in the 5th dimension and below in some form or another
- The collective unconscious of the planet vibrates to the 5th chakra or fifth dimension, so that when you awaken this chakra you often feel the collective weight of the world's unconscious.
- Awakening this chakra or dimension in you usually gives rise to interest in your soul purpose and this dimension accesses this information.
- When you awaken this chakra, deep archetypal patterns that have repeatedly been unresolved by your soul over the course of lifetimes emerge.
- Central library for all major concepts and ideas as well the minor archetypes that create the foundation for your mental body: some examples of the minor archetypes are mother, father, family, home, beauty, science, service, the arts, et cetera; Archetypal therapy is really therapy working with this dimensional aspect of self.
- As this is the dimension most often referred to as the Fertile Void, it is the dimension to travel to when you wish to practice creative manifestation (the ability to create your reality, to change your reality, to manifest your intentions).
- Comprised of a lot of celestial and galactic space
- Contains interstellar and celestial refueling sites, i.e., places where the stars and planets energetically refuel themselves and also places where the planets and stars interface with the body's organs to refuel and revitalize them with vital chi resources
- Contains celestial energy fields; you can travel to many of the stars and planets via this dimension as long as they vibrate to the 5th dimension which many of them do
- Contains the habitat for very powerful beings devoted to the Dark Force (a simple way of saying this is that this is where the archetypal evil beings reside); in order to be a Dark Lord agent here, you have to really intend to do so; the normal progression of the soul is to drop the devotion to the Dark Side by the time you finish your soul development in the 4th dimension
- The concept of wholeness in its true vibration comes from the completion of one's experience in this dimension. The completion of the soul's journey is the mastery of this dimension.

SHADOW ASPECTS OF THIS DIMENSION

- The shadow aspect of this dimension involves the cunning artistry of the Dark Force; those souls from the Dark Side residing here are notoriously intelligent. Knowledge as power is the keystone of this dimension and the wrong use of knowledge is what governs the Dark Forces here. The Dark Force wants to connive the soul into more and more separation from its wholeness.
- One the inner planes, the shadow side can manifest as the inability to reclaim one's spiritual freedom (to reclaim one's soul).

- To gain prominence here as an agent of the Dark Force, you really have to devote yourself to this endeavor, full time. It is never by accident, naiveté or ignorance that you would land yourself a job as a Dark Force agent here.

TRAVELLING IN THIS DIMENSION

- When traveling in this dimension, always ask for a Travel guide and be sure to ask for one that is devoted to the Spiritual Law or to the Light. This dimension has the most amazing array of choices and yet included in those choices are what you might call "ghettos or high crime areas." This means that if you don't know your way around here you could get into trouble. Please take this seriously. With a trustworthy guide you are truly safe.
- It is rare in this dimension to encounter beings that have more human-like emotions as this dimension resonates outside the realm of emotions. Therefore, the beings that you generally meet and dialogue with here do not resonate or respond to emotions. As such, they can seem cold and detached with a piercing accuracy in their ability to mirror to you the truth in a way that can be uncomfortable.
- When traveling in this dimension, if confused, lost or in trouble, always speak the truth even if your truth is that you are afraid. The archetype of truth governs healing in this dimension (as compared to love as in love from the fourth chakra).

ASSOCIATED SENSATIONS WHEN TRAVELLING HERE

- When traveling in this dimension, you may feel very diverse feelings and sensations, depending upon the area you travel in. You may experience space, stars and celestial emanations, void-like emptiness, as well as the fertile and pregnant void; feelings of wholeness and completion; the quality of space here can be disconcerting for many people as it feels cold and devoid of feeling and warmth; as you move into the deeper octaves of space in this dimension and beyond, the space becomes more soft and velvety and smooth however.

APPLICATION OF THESE DIMENSIONAL ENERGIES

- I never open myself as an instrument for energies from this dimension to come through me for healing as I have not found this dimension useful for that purpose. I do however, sometimes contact the space from this dimension and allow it to permeate all the way through me. This has a very relaxing and cleansing effect.
- I do work with clients in this dimension all the time and use Guides from this dimension to give me information as to karmic issues and soul level development. When I have a client who is despairing, I always look at this level to check to see if the soul is under attack from or embroiled in the lair of the Dark Forces.
- One way of retrieving lost soul aspects of you would be to travel to this dimension and ask your High Self here or Soul body to retrieve these lost soul aspects.
- I teach clients to access this dimension for its many uses that are described above.
- This also the dimension that borderline personality disorders travel in and use energies from when they seemingly attach and cord into your unconscious. This dimension does carry energies and other methods for what might be described as mind control or manipulation of the unconscious.

GUIDES

You can always call on one of the Lords of Karma here to act as tour guide, tutor and mentor. The Lords of Karma are innately powerful and can fully protect you from the Dark Force trickery here.
