

EIGHTH TRANSDIMENSIONAL LEVEL

LOCATION

The eighth dimension has distinctly unusual bodily connections. It connects into the body through specific chakra locations and these locations vary dependent on the spiritual lineage of the person. I have seen some eighth chakras located in the back of one of the shoulders and also in the back part of the brain in the occipital region. However, the eighth dimension also connects into the body through the mitochondria in the cells and the subatomic particles called leptons. The eighth dimension transports raw energies through the mitochondria to help fuel and power the cells with primary energy.

ANCHOR POINT FOR THE PLANET

Egypt, the African country of Mali and Mexico are major sites.

PERSONAL ISSUES ASSOCIATED WITH THE EIGHTH CHAKRA

- Right use of spiritual powers and paranormal abilities
- Right use of leadership abilities - many nationally prominent leaders emanate eighth chakra energies
- Interest in the right management of global affairs - global businessman often carry this energy

ABOUT THE EIGHTH DIMENSION

- One purpose of the eighth dimension centers on the regulation of all things physical or material in the galaxy. This includes regulation of matter for humans, stars, planets and all other galactic forms. The eighth dimension plays with material form for this galaxy and with the forces that create material form such as minerals, metals, ores and gases. Engineers of matter populate the eighth dimension. It is in the eighth dimension where high level creations of sacred geometry initiate birthing of new forms of life. As a result, there are many experiments on behalf of the galaxy where matter is manipulated in the service of creating all things physical. For example, the very idea of a nuclear explosion originated in the eighth dimension. Because of this, the eighth dimensional guides oversee how physical structures, including our bodies, handle evolutionary energies.
- As a corollary to its regulation of all things physical and material, the eighth is a high level creation dimension and is many octaves more powerful than fifth dimension manifestation energies.
- Beings in the eighth dimension write evolutionary spiritual blueprints at the abstract energetic level. These are treatment plans for the evolution of the soul. The eighth dimensional High Self strategies how its particular soul or the soul's soul group will evolve. For example, when I did my soul review in my near death experience, I witnessed that I would evolve as a result of frustrated, then released unrequited love. This mathematical algorithm of evolution was the brainstorm of one of the eighth dimensional blueprint engineers.

- Eighth dimensional engineers came up with the idea that the model for change would be pain and suffering here in the third dimension. They also engineered the concept of karma. From the eighth dimension, such blueprints are sent to the seventh dimension ascended masters of the various spiritual lineages that customize blueprints according to the lineage. Constant communication occurs between the seventh and the eighth dimensions.
- The archetypal image of humankind burning in the fires of hell is a distorted image from this realm. This is the dimension that holds some of the master frequencies that burn off karma. These energies are in some ways “crude,” so too many and too much of them descended all at once into the body through the human energy field, can cause pain and a burning sensation in the clearing process.
- Another function of the eighth dimension relates to its service as mediator between earth and the galaxy. Galactic Councils reside here with powerful warring forces presiding, debating and often times battling over galactic territorial rights and governance issues. For me, the eighth dimension in this regard feels like one giant power struggle. Much of my work in this universe has been aimed at realigning the Galactic Councils with a unifying alliance back to the Universe.
- Equator energies here on the earth resonate eighth and ninth dimensional energies.
- Because of its preoccupation with matter, the eighth dimension does have bodily correlates in the third dimension. The glial cell connective tissue system whose function is integral body communication, is a human form variation of the eighth dimension.
- Nonlinear transmission of parental survival imprints via affect, emotion and energy are encoded into the biology of the young child in their core, another eighth dimensional structure. The core translates the parental survival imprints and embeds them into the biology of the child where they guide drives and behavior for survival.
- Angels (novice, but powerful nonetheless,) Devas (Nature spirits) and masterful healers are present in the eighth dimension.

SHADOW ASPECTS OF THE EIGHTH DIMENSION

- Violations of Spiritual Law within the galaxy
- Manipulation of spiritual power by galactic level beings

TRAVELING IN THE EIGHTH DIMENSION

I traveled extensively in the eighth dimension and attended many Galactic Council meetings that were very tumultuous, similar to what you may have seen in a Star Trek movie.

- I also attended experimental Council meetings where new ways were pioneered to induce peaceful negotiations.
- I spent a great deal of time working in the soul/matter creation laboratories designing evolutionary soul blueprints.

ASSOCIATED SENSATIONS WHILE TRAVELING IN THE EIGHTH DIMENSION

The word to best describe the eighth dimension is gold - it simply feels like gold! Energies here feel substantive as compared to highly refined. Immensely creative and nearly immovable power describes the felt sense of being here. Beings at the eighth dimension have very concentrated, focused energy. Projects and experiments abound. It is a busy, creatively active center.

APPLICATION OF EIGHTH DIMENSIONAL ENERGIES

- There are wonderful guides to call upon from the eighth dimension to heal physical, emotional, mental and soul level issues.
- Guides from here exhibit a high level of expertise in healing early family imprints.
- Devas from here can be used to heal land energies and geopathic forces.
- Working in the glial cell system with guides enables energy work to easily and quickly spread throughout the entire body.
- To detoxify physical structures of their associated unpleasant emotions, work on holding the pure vibration of metals and minerals in the body. Allow the metals and minerals to spin out the toxic emotions.
- Eighth dimensional frequencies are very useful when working on the planet.
- Deep work on the brain should be done with a minimum of eighth dimensional vibrations.

GUIDES

- Invoke the Masters of Matter to aid in energy healing work.
- Invoke Regional Devas and Master Devas to aid in the healing of issues related to your house and the land on which you live.
- Always ask that these guides be devoted to the preservation of the universe and Spiritual Law.
