

INVOCATIONS

BEFORE each class and practice group session

"I ask and allow by Spiritual Law and my Over Soul that I invoke the Laws of Magic and Laws of Force, and I ask that any parts of me that have unfinished emotional business be parked to the side so that those unfinished emotional parts do not use the class as a way to express themselves. This I ask and allow by Law and my Over Soul."

It's likely that not all transmissions and practices will be compatible and comfortable in your field. If you feel off or out of harmony after practices, then invoke the "Undo/Redo."

This Invocation is important in buddy practices because you'll be experimenting.

UNDO/REDO INVOCATION

I ask and allow by Law and my Over Soul that I undo and redo any and all of the energies from practices or class that aren't right for me, and I ask my field to redo my energy field, keeping all those energies that are just right for me and discarding all those that are not and reconfiguring my field to be whole and smooth. This I ask and allow by Law.

Repeat the invocation several times until you feel centered, balanced, and aligned.

Note: You don't have to know what energies didn't work for you, and you don't have to know how to redo your energy - it's part of your "Dashboard" on your energy field. Your dashboard erases what's not compatible and keeps all the good stuff that works for you.

In Magic it is important to always be closing the back doors. Start every practice with the intention that you close your back doors and seal your field.

Magic is very fluid, and many of you are highly adept and energetically sophisticated in Magic and can easily move from one realm of Magic to another without knowing it. There are dark beings and areas of Magic that are best avoided.

INDIVIDUAL OR PRACTICE GROUP PROTECTION INVOCATION

"I ask and allow by Spiritual Law, Laws of Magic and Laws of Force and my OverSoul that I seal my field, and/or the field of the group in a way that only allows connection to those realms that are just right for you, or just right for the group, and that subscribe to the pure Laws of Magic and Laws of Force. This I ask and allow by Spiritual Law, Law of Magic and Laws of Force and my Oversoul.

IMPORTANT NOTE: There are realms of Magic that are dangerous and aspects of Magic that should not be explored.

If you get into trouble:

1. The first thing to do is invoke the "undo/redo"
2. Invoke the Laws of Magic and the Laws of Force – "I ask and allow by Law and my Over Soul that I invoke that Laws of Magic and the Laws of Force and I ask the Council of Wizards and the Council of Druids to clear and seal my field and protect it. This I ask and allow by Law.
